Wie Ben Ik?: latest ratings
news posted on January 1st 2009

SBS 6's "Wie Ben Ik?" was broadcast yesterday from 7:00 pm to 9:00 pm in two parts. The first part attracted 442 000 viewers (market share: 9,5%) and the second part 607 000 viewers (market share: 10,5%). These figures are disappointing in comparison with the average ratings last autumn: 1 200 000 viewers with a 20% share. This decrease is due to the New Year Eve's ratings war and a change in schedule (the game show was normally aired on saturday evening at 9:30 pm).

Marga Scheide & Patty Brard: guests on "Char"
news posted on January 4th 2009

Marga and Patty will appear on "Char" (a parapsychology TV show aired on RTL 4) on January 8th at 9:30 pm. The world famous and controversial medium, Char Margolis, is performing readings in which she claims to be able to contact or "channel" the souls of the deceased. In March 2008, the investigation programme "Zemba" on Vara/Nederland 3 alleged that Margolis was using a guessing technique called "cold reading" instead of actually communicating with spirits. Last November, the Dutch celebrity gossip magazines revealed that during her session with Marga Scheide, Char found out that the blonde Luv' singer had two miscarriages (see news posted on November 4th 2008). Marga told RTL Boulevard she was impressed by the medium's talent as she kept these sad events secret. news posted on January 4th 2009

Last year, La Brard was the regular guest on the first season of SBS 6's "De Nieuwe Uri Geller" (the search for the next great mentalist). Indeed, she will co-host it with Tooske Ragas. Moreover, the recordings will take place in Holland at Studio 24 in Hilversum's Mediapark instead of Cologne the previous year. Will the second season score good ratings again? It will be Patty's challenge. De Nieuwe Uri Geller is based on a popular Israeli TV concept (The Successor). There have been several versions of the competition show around the world (USA, Germany, Hungary, Turkey). source: SBS 6

news posted on January 9th 2008

Marga appeared in court on January 7th for a hearing. The blonde Luv' singer is filing a lawsuit against an ex good friend (named Ronald). She accuses Ronald of not having repaid a 100 000 euro debt to her (see news on December 18th 2008). Marga invested in the past money in the fund of René van den Berg (who was later charged with perpetrating investor fraud). Ronald seemed to be interested in this investment too. He asked Marga if she could pay 100 000 euros in advance for him but he never paid this amount back. When Scheide asked him for the money, he told that he couldn't be indebted to her because he hasn't signed any document. The judge will hand down a verdict on February 18th.

Marga expressed her sorrow to RTL Boulevard (the entertainment news show on RTL 4).

Marga's reading with the American medium Char Margolis was shown yesterday evening on RTL 4's "Char het medium". The Luv' singer was accompanied by friend and colleague Patty Brard. The session was very emotional. Char found out that Marga had two miscarriages and that the greatest love of her life was Jacques Zwart (who passed away five years ago in Ibiza). Char added that Jacques spirit

Patty Brard: she wants to win the ratings war!!!

news posted on January 9th 2009

The second season of De Nieuwe Uri Geller is starting today! Patty Brard wants to do her best to make it successful. That's what she has told newspaper De Telegraaf. Two years ago, after the RTL Group got rid of her, The TV diva found her salvation on a rival channel (SBS 6). Her funny performance in the celebrity ice-skating show Sterren Dansen Op Het Ijs saved her career. All the Dutch viewers remember when she did the splits. It was a heavily covered media event. Then she started to present Shownieuws (an entertainment news programme that she still hosts). In 2008, La Brard was the regular guest on De Nieuwe Uri Geller (Hayashi's cucumber act was unforgettable!!!). She later became team captain (with Gerard Joling) on the game show "Wie Ben Ik?" (whose next season will start on January 17th).

José in Benidorm, Spain on December 15th, 2008

Though José Hoebee isn't a real recording artist anymore and that the music industry is in crisis, it doesn't mean that her solo career is over. Fortunately she's booked for corporate events and private parties. The problem with these performances is that José isn't in contact with her fans. Moreover, her public isn't informed about these shows as they aren't public. On the other hand, these are well paid gigs.

A few days ago, a member of Hoebee's fan club found pictures of her performance at a private artist gala in Benidorm, Spain on December 15th 2008. Other Dutch celebrities (including Bonnie St. Claire and Anny Schilder) appeared on stage too.

Bad news for Patty who wanted to take revenge on RTL 4 (see news on January 9th). 1 million viewers watched the programme (market share: 14.4%). Candidate Manro was eliminated from the competition.

Wie Ben Ik?: less attractive?

Estelle Gullit and Patty Brard on "Wie Ben Ik?"

The new season of SBS6's game show "Wie Ben Ik?" (hosted by Tooske Ragas and featuring Patty Brard and Gerard Joling as team captains) started yesterday evening at 8:00 pm. This programme didn't achieve the desired results. 1.069.000 viewers watched it (market share: 16.2%). It's disappointing if you consider the average ratings last autumn: between 1.2 and 1.3 million viewers with a 20% share. Moreover, the latest broadcast of De Nieuwe Uri Geller was supposed to be a big success and attracted 1 million viewers with difficulty. These ratings are respectable but SBS 6 had high expectations for Patty's weekend shows. It seems that La Brard has lost a bit of her "midas touch".

According to Privé's editor, Evert Santegoeds, the official reason of this cancellation is Patty's lack of time. Brard is indeed involved in three shows on SBS 6 simultaneously.

The first season of "De Nieuwe Uri Geller" aired last year on SBS 6 (featuring Patty Brard as a regular guest) is nominated in the category "Entertainment/Show programmes".

Moreover, there are controversies around the second season of the paranormal talent show. The Dutch edition has at the moment less viewers than in 2008 (even if the latest ratings are respectable for Holland: the programme attracted 1 million viewers). One week ago, Uri Geller was shocked by the performance of Belgian vampire/mentalist Vincent that he described as "disgusting" after he had eaten "leeches". There's been troubles during the rehearsal of the "Winfried & Angelique" act and the live performance of a 26 year old candidate of the German version ("The Next Uri Geller" on ProSieben) who almost drowned.

Patty's good fortune

news posted on January 27th 2009

Patty and her fiancé Antoine

Journalist Thalia Brandt has written a nice article about Patty Brard's recent success on SBS 6 TV channel and in her personal life. This portrait has been published yesterday in the Dutch newspaper BN De Stem.

The diva tells showbiz facts and stories on "Shownieuws", hosts the mentalist talent show "De Nieuwe Uri Geller" and is a team captain on the game show "Wie Ben Ik?".

The 53 year old TV personality is now enjoying a renaissance.

Her funny performance as she did the splits on SBS 6's "Sterren Dansen Op Het Ijs" saved her career in 2007. Just before that, Patty had been fired by the RTL Group. It was the second time that she suffered from a bad career move after her bankruptcy fifteen years ago. Her finances are now good like her love life. After her marriages with Ron Brandsteder, Carlo Nasi and René Muthert, Patty is in love with architect Antoine van de Vijver. Moreover, La Brard and her daughter Priscilla have patched up their quarrel.

Soon, the spectators will see her cameo role in the movie "Spion van Oranje". Other film projects are planned and last but not least: the Dutch media queen has been approached by a great music producer for a record. However, she has confirmed that she won't be involved in any reality TV show like "Patty's Posse".

So, the plump star has good reasons to believe in her future.
