Frans Bauer played a trick on Patty Brard

news posted on November 1st 2009

Patty Brard & Frans Bauer

Last week, singer and TV host Frans Bauer played a trick on Patty Brard for his Candid Camera-like show "Bananasplit" on TROS. After her visit to the Cirque du Soleil in Denmark (see news posted on October 27th 2009), the diva saw trucks and dredging machines in front of her house in construction. A billboard indicated that there would be dredging works until 2012. Patty was furious but at the end she found out it was a joke.

Bananasplit featuring La Brard will be aired in March 2010. The Luv' singer hosted with Ralph Inbar this hidden camera TV show in the early 1980's.

Found on Google Books: Luv' collecting silver awards for "With LUV" in Denmark in 1979 (Billboard Magazine)

news posted on November 6th 2009

I've recently found on Google books a rare and short article originally published on August 25th 1979 on Billboard magazine. It deals with Luv' receiving a silver disc for the "With Luv" album in Denmark ("an unusual achievement for a Dutch act in that nation" as it's mentioned in the article). This document which dated back to the group's heyday is exceptional as it was issued in the USA (where Luv' never reached fame).

30 years ago: Ooh, Yes I Do conquered the charts
news posted on November 10th 2009

Luv' performing "Ooh, Yes I Do" on German TV show "Musikladen"

In the autumn of 1979, Luv' entered a new chapter in their career. They left Philips/Phonogram Records to sign a deal with CNR/Carrere. The first record released by their new label was Ooh, Yes I Do (written by Hans van Hemert). It rapidly became an instant hit in some European countries (Benelux, Denmark, Germany and to a lesser extent France). It also went gold in Mexico. To read my article about this Luv' classic hit: <http://allaboutluv.tripod.com/id44.html>

Luv' photo book : no publication

news posted on November 20th 2009

Peter Boonstra (of Luv' Fan club) announced on his site that his photo book about Holland's first girl group would not be published. Patty Brard vetoed the project that she considered as a "bad scrapbook" in spite of Peter's wonderful input into it. The diva told RTL Boulevard (the entertainment news program on RTL 4) that she would like to publish it with "someone who could write well" and that she didn't like the fact that a small publisher would distribute it. According to Albert Verlinde (who hosts RTL Boulevard), the three Luv' ladies are opposed to Peter's initiative. However, José Hoebee wrote on the forum of her official fansite that Marga Scheide and her regretted the bad news and that they rang Peter to support him.

Patty: no portrait session

news posted on November 23rd 2009

Patty was supposed to pose for two artists in a luxury department store during the launch party of a book entitled "Sprekend!" on November 19th (see news posted on November 23rd 2009). The diva was replaced by controversial celebrity Emile Ratelband. When the media announced that La Brard would apparently pose nude, Christina Curry (Patricia Paay's daughter) wrote on her twitter page: "Oh god no. No one is waiting for these hanging tits!". Christina criticized Patty after her rude remarks about Paay's Playboy session.

In memoriam: Pim Koopman

news posted on November 25th 2009

José Hoebee and Pim Koopman (1982)

Pim Koopman, record producer, songwriter and drummer of legendary progressive rock band Kayak, died on November 23rd at age 56. He was the composer of several successful songs, including a total of six entries on the national selection to the Eurovision Song Contest. He recorded a string of hit records with famous Dutch pop acts (Maywood, Pussycat, Time Bandits, Sandy Coast....). He produced José Hoebee's most popular singles in 1982 : I Will Follow Him (that hit the number one spot in the Netherlands and Belgium) and Secret Love. José talked yesterday about the late artist during a phone interview on Shownieuws on SBS 6. She told that Koopman helped her in her solo career after Luv's break-up.

Patty on Shownieuws: latest reports

Viktor Brand (left) & Patty Brard on Shownieuws (SBS 6)

The "enfant terrible" of Luv' still co-hosts Shownieuws on SBS 6 with Viktor Brand. On November 23rd, she covered the news that Pop star Gordon entered into talks with the management of De Toppers (the supergroup he left in September). If Gordon didn't come back, a new member would be found. Moreover, Patty was followed by a camera team of Shownieuws on November 24th when she gave the first copy of the latest DVD of late singer André Hazes to his children (Roxanne and Dré). Hazes died on 2004 and is still appreciated in Holland.

Patty on Carlo & Irene: Life 4 You

news posted on November 30th 2009

Patty Brard was one of the guests yesterday afternoon on "Carlo & Irene: Life4You", a talk show aired on RTL 4. The main topic of the TV program (hosted by Carlo Boszhard and Irene Moors) was Spain. That's why Patty was invited as she has a villa in Ibiza. The diva assisted the cook Rudolph to make a Spanish meal. Moreover, La Brard talked about her life, her health, her lover (architect Antoine van de Vijver) and her projects. She will soon attend a course in a British Psychic Academy to prepare for the third season of De Nieuwe Uri Geller (the paranormal talent show aired in early 2010 on SBS 6). The Luv' lady will also record a Carnival single that will be released in a couple of months.
