José's latest column

José Hoebee is back from the holidays she has spent in Austria. She is preparing with her colleagues (Patty Brard and Marga Scheide) the launch of the Luv' DVD, the TV docusoap and the concert with De Toppers.

So you can expect a busy schedule for the ladies.

In her latest column on the Muziekmaken.nl website, she told she was surprised about the controversy around her recent plastic surgery intervention. She admitted she had an eyelid reduction. Moreover, she refused botox injections though Patty tried to convince her to have them.

José added that the plans around the dvd and the docusoap were not announced as long as nothing was sure.

José's throat problems at the Efteling

According to Novum News, on Sunday March 26th, José Hoebee had throat problems when she sang at the "Princess day at the Efteling". She replaced her colleague Patty Brard who was ill and who was supposed to be the original performer for this event. Marga Scheide (who didn't sing at all) attended this gig to support José. A short explanation for the non-Dutch web surfers: Princess Household Appliances BV is a Dutch firm specialising in small domestic appliances. This company has also an "Entertainment & Music label" division. Each year, a Special Princess Day is organized at the Efteling (the greatest attraction park in the Netherlands) with celebrities.
