Fun @ The Amsterdam Gay Pride

One week ago, Patty Brard and José Hoebee had fun at the Amsterdam Gay Pride. First of all, Patty invited José on board the SBS 6 - Shownieuws boat during the Canal Parade. A camera team of Shownieuws filmed the ladies during this event. Then José performed three of her hits (I Will Follow Him, Secret Love, So Long Marianne) at the Amstelpodium and Patty made an unexpected stage appearance. The girls sang in duet four songs of the Luv' repertoire (You're The Greatest Lover, Casanova, Don Juanito De Carnaval, U.O.Me). According to the fans reviews on the Luvclub's forum, it was a great show!!!

Patty & José : In the media

José Hoebee and especially Patty Brard are often in the spotlight. These are their latest news:

* José has been interviewed by "Dag Allemaal", a Flemish magazine in its September 18th issue. She has answered questions about Luv', her reconciliation with Patty, plastic surgery, her son, her husband, the girls groups K3 (that she considers as Luv's successor) and Dolly Dots (Luv's rivals).

*According to the Dutch newspaper De Telegraaf, the Flemish magazine Blik and the NU.nl website, Patty is dreaming of a reconciliation with her daughter Priscilla and a traditional marriage with her fiancé Antoine van de Vijver. However, the details about this wedding haven't been announced yet.

Veronica magazine is organizing the Lelijk Ding prijs (Ugly Thing Prize), an award to reward the "worst" Dutch TV magazine, female and male TV host. Bad news: La Brard is among the nominees.

Patty is opposed to the fact that Jan Smit (a 21 year old pop and schlager singer in the Dutch and German speaking countries) might be presenting a TV talkshow because she thinks "he's too young and unexperienced". source: www.blikopnieuws.nl
