Luv' and Piet Souer at Will Hoebee's birthday party

Yesterday, Luv' and Piet Souer (one of the producers and creators of the band with Hans van Hemert) were in Best (near Eindhoven, Netherlands) at the birthday party of Will Hoebee (José's husband is 60!!! He was a successful music producer in the 1970's and the 1980's). The ladies made a special performance for Will.

Luv' @ Efteling: Pics and a funny amateur video

The girls performed on Saturday evening at the Efteling attraction park (in the south of the Netherlands). All the pictures of their performance can be seen on Luv''s fanclub site. The fans' reviews about this concert on the forum of the group's site are positive. The public was enthusiastic. However, something strange happened during the show. As they were singing "Trojan Horse" (one of their biggest hits in 1978), José and Marga were attacked by a wasp. You can watch an amateur video posted on Youtube about this hilarious moment.

Good news: Luv' won't disband!!!

When Luv' made its big comeback more than one year and half ago, the ladies expected to make TV performances and to go on stage until December 2006. However, due to their concerts success in the Netherlands and Flanders, the divas announced that they would carry on until September 2007. An article in last week's issue of Story (a Dutch gossip magazine) mentioned that the female pop trio would stop its gigs because Patty Brard could be booked as a solo artist. Fortunately, Luv''s official fanclub issued a denial of this report on the group's internet forum. So don't worry: Luv' isn't about to disband again!!!
