

All About LUV' News Archives (December 2008)

Marga Scheide: she has nothing to hide!!!

news posted on December 4th 2008

Marga Scheide told her story about her illness, her healing and her plans for the future in last week's issue of celebrity gossip magazine "Privé". Six years ago, she was diagnosed with a breast cancer one day before Christmas. She had to be operated. After that, she felt fine for years until she had to go to hospital a few weeks ago (see news in Archives).

source: Privé/De Telegraaf

Patty Brard: she cares about money!!!

news posted on December 4th 2008

According to a survey conducted by the Xgratis.nl website, Patty Brard has been chosen as the second thriciest Dutch celebrity with 9% of the votes (the first being Gerard Joling and Gordon with 25%).

source: Xgratis.nl, Flitsnieuws.nl, Dagblad de Limburger

Patty Brard: under negotiation with Paul de Leeuw

news posted on December 9th 2008

The SBS 6 presenter is in negotiations with EVA Media, Paul de Leeuw's television production company. Patty would like to develop a TV show about "exes". However, nothing has been confirmed yet.

source: De Telegraaf

Patty: one of the most irritating Dutch celebrities

news posted on December 9th 2008

According to a survey conducted by the website voetbabbel.nl, Patty Brard is the second most irritating Dutch celebrity (18% of the votes). There's a love/hate relationship between the public and the diva.

source: Voetbabbel.nl, De Telegraaf

Patty and the SBS 6 stars: Christmas campaign

news posted on December 9th 2008

The SBS 6 TV channel is currently broadcasting a Christmas campaign starring its TV hosts (including Patty Brard who presents the entertainment news show "Shownieuws"). You can find pictures of the SBS 6 All-Stars holiday greetings on the channel's website. The shot took place in late November in Harderwijk.

Source: www.sbs6.nl

~~~~~

Hans van Hemert's interview

news posted on December 9th 2008

Hans & daughter Hannah

Go to my "Interview" page, to read the answers of Hans van Hemert (the maestro of Dutch pop music) to my questions.

José Hoebee to perform in Eindhoven on Sunday, December 14th

news posted on December 10th 2008

José will be performing at the Stadspaviljoen in Eindhoven on Sunday, December 14th at 3:00 PM. She will sing two songs with the Valiants (the former band of Piet Souer, one of Luv's songwriters). The entrance is free.

José hasn't made a public performance for months. She has recently expressed her wish to focus on her solo career now that Luv's schedule is quiet.

Infos about the venue: <http://www.stadspaviljoen.nl/>
source: José Hoebee Fan Club

~~~~~

Vote for « Patty frightened with cucumber » as the best moment of 2008!!!

News posted on December 12th 2008

Patty's reaction to the mentalist's act was a fabulous publicity stunt for "De Nieuwe Uri Geller".

SBS 6 will air a special programme for New Year's eve: "Het Staatsloterij Oudejaarsfeest" a lottery TV show with performances of famous Dutch acts. The five most incredible moments of 2008 will also be shown during this live broadcast. The viewers can vote for what they consider as the most surprising moment of this year on this site: <http://www.oudejaarsfeest2008.nl/>

Among the 30 highlights that are nominated, there is Patty Brard's participation in Hayashi's cucumber act on De Nieuwe Uri Geller in February. Once again, the diva really stole the show the way she did one year before by doing the splits on a popular ice skating TV contest.

In addition to the great lottery and entertainment programme, a special broadcast of Wie Ben Ik? (the game show featuring Patty) will be aired for the final evening of the year.

Patty's criticism of Frits Sissing

news posted on December 14th 2008

Patty Brard is straightforward and always let us know what she's thinking. Yesterday, she told newspaper De Telegraaf her opinion on TV host Frits Sissing and his presentation of In De Hoofdrol on AVRO/Nederland 1 channel. She said: "I'm not quickly irritated by something but when if I consider this season I have to think of Frits "Vergissing" (a Dutch play on words with Sissing's name; Vergissing means "mistake". By using this word, Brard considers the presenter as a bad TV professional). The Shownieuws diva described Sissing's show (whose original version was launched in the 1960's and presented by Mies Bouwman) as a remake of something that used to be good". Patty appeared last month on "In de Hoofdrol", whose main guest was entertainer Gerard Joling (see news archives: november 2008).

source: De Telegraaf/DigitaalMedia

Marga Scheide is suing a friend!!!

news posted on December 18th 2009

Marga Scheide is filing a lawsuit against an ex good friend (named Ronald, his surname hasn't been mentioned in the media). The blonde Luv' singer accuses Ronald of not having repaid a 100 000 euro debt to her. She has confirmed this misadventure to RTL Boulevard (the entertainment news show on RTL 4). Ronald has written in a statement that he couldn't be indebted to Marga because he hasn't signed any document. The lawsuit will start on January 7th 2009.

source: RTL Boulevard/De Telegraaf

José Hoebee at the latest "Back to the sixties" tribute show

news posted on December 19th 2006

As I've recently written it, José Hoebee was scheduled to perform on Sunday, December 14th a couple of songs with The Valiants (Piet Souer's band) at the Stadspaviljoen in Eindhoven. Luv''s lead singer indeed made a guest performance with the beat group by singing the Chuck Berry song "C'est la vie (You never can tell)". The gig was planned within the context of the third edition of "Back to the sixties" (a tribute show with four groups from the North Brabant rock/beat scene of the 1960's: Fashion 66, Formule 5, The Valiants and The Waives).

Source: <http://www.spanglefish.com/sixties/>

Patty to present De Nieuwe Uri Geller

news posted on December 19th 2008

From left to right: Viktor Brand, magician Ramana (winner of the first season of De Nieuwe Uri Geller) and Patty Brard

Patty Brard will present with Tooske Ragas the second season of "De Nieuwe Uri Geller" from January 9th at 8:30 pm on SBS 6. The programme, which is based on the Israeli television series "The Successor", is a competition show judged by the world famous mentalist Uri Geller. It features contestants performing their tricks on celebrity guests each week to become the "next great mentalist". The first season was high in the ratings. Patty's bizarre reactions to the paranormal acts was an ingredient in this successful programme.

Source: SBS 6/De Telegraaf/TV Visie/Novum/Nieuws.nl

Will Hoebee on RTL Boulevard about Royal single

news posted on December 23th 2008

Will Hoebee evoking his memories of the Royal single

The single recorded in 1979 by Princess Margriet and Pieter van Vollenhoven

RTL Boulevard (the entertainment news magazine on RTL 4) revealed yesterday that Princess Margriet of the Netherlands and her husband Pieter van Vollenhoven recorded a 7" 45 rpm single to celebrate their wedding anniversary in 1979. This record produced by Will Hoebee (José's hubby) wasn't commercially released and was only given to the family and friends of the Royal couple. Will told RTL Boulevard his memories of the recording session. The Royal duo performed two cover versions of standards (Ramses Shaffy's Samen and ABBA's Thank You For The Music) with other lyrics. Now that the existence of the single is known, it's a real collector's item!!!!

Moreover, Hoebee announced that he was writing a book about his career and the singers he worked with : Nana Mouskouri, Vicky Leandros, David Soul, Bonnie St. Claire....

Source: RTL Boulevard/Royalty-online.nl

Wie Ben Ik?: New Year's eve broadcast

news posted on December 29th 2008

Wie Ben Ik?, the game show hosted by Tooske Ragas and featuring Patty Brard and Gerard Joling as team captains, will be especially broadcast on December 31. at 7:00 pm (New Year's Eve) on SBS 6. The guests for this unique programme are Nance, Volter Kroes, Natasja Froger and Peter van der Vorst among others. Wie Ben Ik? was high in the ratings in September and October. A new season is expected to start on February 9th 2009.

source: SBS 6

