Pat's Life

After her career as a singer, Patty Brard has found her salvation in TV as a host

As I wrote it a few weeks ago in an article on this blog, Patty Brard is the ex Luv' member who has got a high media profile in the Netherlands because of the many shows she has hosted on TV and the controversy around her turbulent life.

On March 25th. she has celebrated her 50th birthday. That's why a special TV programme was prepared. This project, called "Pat's Life", is a docusoap which was broadcast every monday evening at 8:30 pm from April to the end of May on Yorin, a Dutch commercial channel which belonged to the RTL/Bertelsmann Group.

It's her third program of this kind after Patty's Posse (inspired by the Osbournes on MTV) in 2003-2004 and Patty's Fort last autumn (criticized by almost every columnist in Holland and described as "the most ridiculous TV show of 2004").

In Pat's Life, shot as a eight-part serial, LA Brard (as she is often nicknamed) met the persons who played a huge part in her existence (Hans van Hemert, her ex producer and lover, Eric Peute, ex-partner, José Hoebée, René Muthert, her ex husband..).

If you analyze carefully the audience ratings of this docusoap, you can considered it, to a certain extent, as a respectable success. Every monday, the show was watched by approximately 600.000 viewers, which is not so bad (don't forget that the Netherlands only has 16 million inhabitants, 95% of the Dutch have cable or satellite TV and the TV offer is very large and eclectic). Pat's Life was one of the best ratings of Yorin and is among the Top 5 evening shows on monday evening (after RTL4, Nederland1, Nederland 2 and SBS 6).

Patty's surprise at José's fanclub day

Ten days ago, José's second fan club day was held in Oirschot, Netherlands. During this special event, the singer presented her first and long awaited CD compilation (Alle Hits & Unieke Bonustracks, released by WVS Music). The Flemish pop band Swoop gave José the first copy of this record. One of the highlights of this party: Patty's presence. The war between the two former rivals was over, after they had buried the hatchet last Spring. Of course, José was very enthusiastic about HER day.
