30 years ago, on July 13th 1979, TROS (a Dutch TV channel), aired a 20 minutes TV special entitled "Lots of Luv'" (named after the group's second LP).

Since the first special (All You Need Is Luv') broadcast in November 1978, things were getting better for the ladies. After being successful in their homeland, the girl trio became a great export act in Continental Europe and South Africa.

The Lots of Luv' special started with a medley of their greatest hits of the previous year (U.O.Me, Eres Mi Mejor Amante (the Spanish version of You're the Greatest Lover) and Trojan Horse). At the same time, impressive sales figures of these singles and a list of gold and platinum records were shown. The aim was to underline Luv''s popularity abroad.

Then the TV show featured performances of songs from their second album "Lots of Luv'": D.J., Casanova, Marcellino, Shoes Off (Boots On), Eeny Meeny Miny Moe and I.M.U.R.

The programme was recorded at the Ponypark in Slagharen. It was produced by John de Mol (founder of Endemol who later became Marga Scheide's lover) in association with Interlinde Management (which was in charge of Luv''s career) and Variety Productions.

In 2006, this TV special was included on the DVD "Back In Luv'".
